Were it not for this person, your Echo might still be a picture book without a story, a mere copy of last year's and the year before. She introduced idea after idea: a theme, action shots in the class sections, an index, a faculty directory, outstanding seniors, etc., etc.

Her sincere interest in your yearbook can be noted by her personal initiative. She was the first to have the Echo professionally criticized. Each summer she attends a yearbook symposium in Chapel Hill. The magazine drive reached a record goal under her leadership this year.

It is with great appreciation for her tireless work as advisor that the Echo staff dedicates the 1965-66 Echo to MRS. MARY GARRISON

Dedication

A fancy for the modern,
Delight in secrets kept—
Young minds are fresh for learning;
Floors must be always swept.
Consideration, basic
To every phase of school.
Have fun and lots of pleasures
Within bounds of the rule.

In the beginning . . .

Like the curious child
Searching under a stone
Hoping for wonderful surprise.
And yet like the camouflaged soldier
Looking to see if the way is clear—
Fearful doubt was in our eyes.

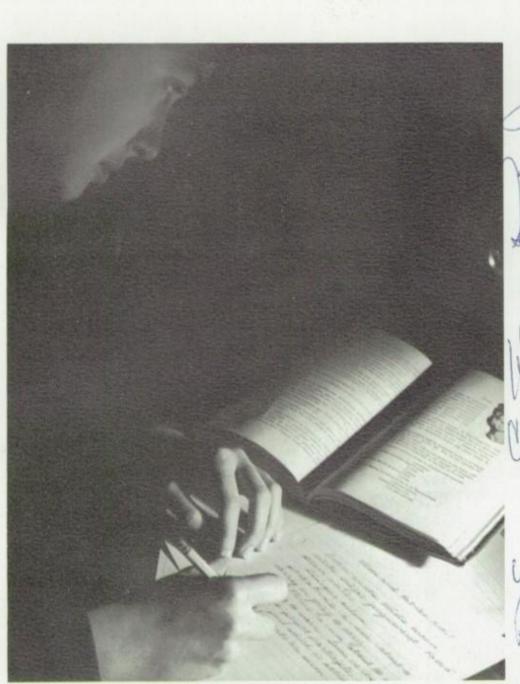

For the very first time in our lives
The power of age was recognized.
And yet we each felt a little self-pride.
I guess all newcomers
Feel the same way
As they begin their bumpy, four-year ride.

Gridders off to best start in years

Hard running backs, great passing, brilliant receiving, stout defense, great desire and a 41-2 romp over North Rowan: these are some of the memories we will all hold for our 1965 football season.

Co-captained by tackle Mike Surratt and all-purpose back Mike Hillard, the B.H.S. gridders got off to their best start in years. Bouncing back from a 13-6 loss to Kannapolis in the opening game, the Jackets unleashed their fury on North Rowan to grab a 41-2 non-conference victory. The performance of the Yellow Jackets in that game proved that they were a team to cope with in the General 4-A Conference. Mike Harrison, a hard runner, scored four touchdowns in the North game in leading the B.H.S. squad to their overwhelming victory.

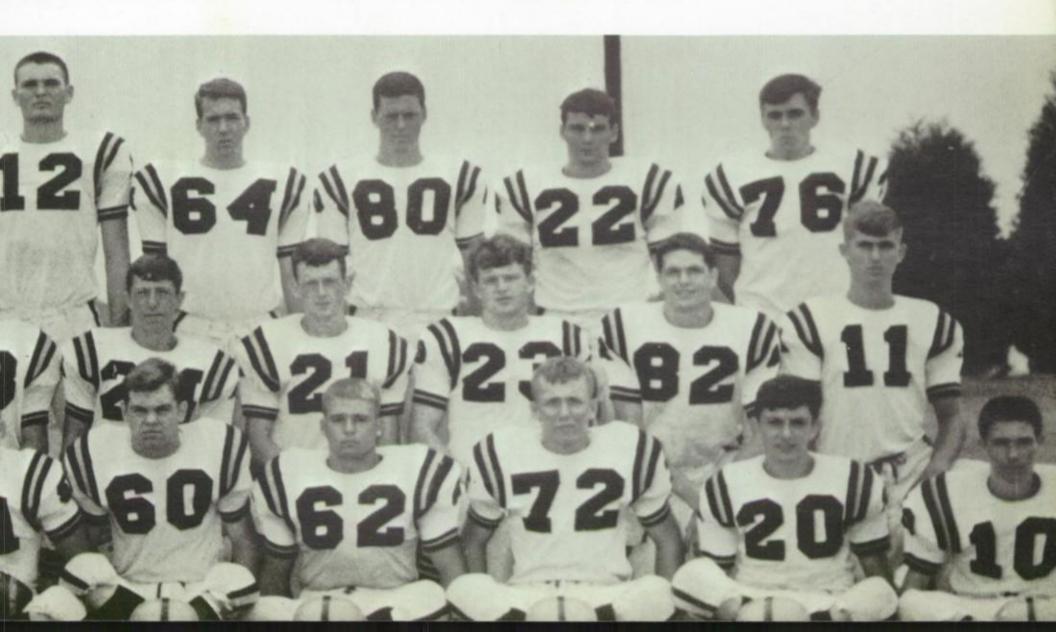

Boyden Football Coaches: Charles Hellard, Ken Bumgarner, Mac Brawley, Charles Little, Frank Saunders, Don Graham, Bobby Pharr.

Managers and Trainers: Giles Goodman, Vic Shive, Jimmy Pope, John Turner, Doug Shelton, Steve Cornelison, Robby Gill.

The Jackets captured their second victory in the next game against a strong South Rowan. Led by the running of Harrison and the passing of quarterback Fred Cooke to ends Jim Alexander, Willard Pleasants, and Mike Hillard, they stormed to a 26-13 victory over the Rebels—sweet revenge for their loss the year before.

After suffering a setback at the hands of a strong Lexington eleven, the Boydenites bounced back with a gratifying 19-6 win over conference foe West Forsyth. Again Harrison, Hillard, and Cooke led the offense, with Mike Surratt, John Millspaugh, Jim Kelly, and Daryl Presson shining on defense.

Boyden's Butch Brown bursts around end for long gain against North Rowan.

At midseason the Jackets were riding on a comparatively good 3-2 record. Then, after a heart-breaking homecoming loss to Greensboro Smith by a score of 13-12, a plague of injuries hit the team. Early in the High Point game, Mike Harrison was put out of action for the rest of the season when he dislocated his shoulder on a bruising tackle. From then on, it was all bad luck for the Jackets. Despite the offensive efforts of Cooke, Hillard, Alexander, Pleasants, Bub Carlton, and Kyle Black, Boyden was unable to play effective football. The Jackets dropped their last five games in a row, ending the season with a 3-7 record.

The disappointing last half of the season was due to the many injuries. Seldom was there a time when all the starters were in good physical shape. And, yet, all was not lost. Valuable experience was gained by the sophomores and juniors on the team. With a little bit of luck, and fewer injuries, the B.H.S. gridders for next year can give Coach Bumgarner a winning season.

Boyden High's spirited Yellow Jackets, under the able guidance of coaches Graham and Pharr, played outstanding basketball and ended the season with a fine 16-7 record. The team finished second in the stiff and rugged Central 4-A Conference and thus gained a berth in the State 4-A Basketball Tournament at Greensboro. Co-captains Fred Cooke and Bill Gribble paced the squad. Both boys were selected to the all conference team for the second straight year.

The Jackets opened their season against North Rowan and showed everyone that they were a team to be reckoned with as they romped to an easy 65-47 victory. The team then went on to maul West Rowan twice and North Rowan once again before school was dismissed for the Christmas Holidays.

Head varsity basketball coach Don Graham and assistant coach Bobby Pharr guided Jackets to another State Tournament.

The BHS "Roundballers" were managed by Scott Carter, Johnny Turner, Johnny Simmerson, and Tim Smith.

During this vacation period the team met its match, as it fell twice victim to tough Greensboro Page in non-conference events. After the holidays, however, the team rebounded with two fine victories over West Forsyth and Lexington, but then lost momentum and dropped two successive games to Greensboro Smith and High Point.

The Jackets suddenly came alive and displayed their real potential by easily downing five opponents in a row. Throughout this surge the Boyden defense shined as the offense continually burned the cords. The highlight of the season came during this spree with a 87-37 massacre of West Forsyth. Defeat then caught up with the team as they were upset 48-46 by Lexington. The Jackets, knowing that they must finish no lower than second in the conference to capture a State Tournament berth, quickly regrouped and finished the regular season with four crushing victories.

The Jackets then journeyed to the conference tournament and gained revenge on Lexington before being eliminated by Burlington in a close 65-58 contest. The team then traveled to face Myers Park, the Southern 4-A champs.

The Jackets lost to Myers Park by a score of 68-55, but the squad never gave up. Perhaps this never-give-up attitude was the key to the fine triumphs and successes of our team. Each and every Boydenite can be proud of our 1965-66 Basketball team.

Matmen Take Third Straight Conference Crown

Great team spirit combined with outstanding individual efforts enabled the B.H.S. wrestlers to capture their third straight Central 4-A Conference Crown and give Coach Jack Turney permanent possession of the coveted trophy.

Led by undefeated Captains Brown, Reynolds, and Rufty, the grapplers blazed through the regular season with a perfect 15-0 record, lengthening their three-year win streak to forty-six straight matches.

After posting two non-conference wins over East Rowan and Goldsboro, the Jackets began their conference string with a 31-12 victory over highly regarded North Forsyth. After consecutive victories over Lexington and West Forsyth, the Jackets faced their toughest test of the year unbeaten Greensboro Smith. Performing beautifully before a home crowd of 800, Coach Turney's crew coasted to a 32-13 victory and gained sole possession of first in the conference.

High Point and Parkland were next to fall prey to the stinging Yellow Jackets. Then they faced tough Reynolds High in Winston-Salem. Down by the score of 21-12 with five matches to go, the Jackets rode the shoulders of their middle and heavy weights to a 28-21 victory. Then they rolled over North Forsyth and West Forsyth before again facing Greensboro Smith. Without the services of Bruce Rufty, who was unable to wrestle most of the season, the Jackets found themselves down 24-20 going into the heavyweight match. But Big Mark Hart, a 260-pound muscleman, came through with a pin to give the Jackets a 25-24 decision and preserve the winning streak and conference lead.

Closing out the season with victories over High Point and Parkland by 40-10 and 43-6, the Jackets entered the Central Sectional Tournament in Winston-Salem with high hopes. Due to the individual success of nine wrestlers, the Boyden team won the meet out of a field of sixteen teams. Four Boydenites were District champions in their respective weight classes: Boyce Stevens (95), Bruce Rufty (112), David Troxler (138), and Butch Brown (165). Rick Reynolds (145) and John Kesler (197) were runners-up, and Gerald Loftin (120), Bub Carlton (133), and Mark Hart (unlimited) placed third.

Rufty, Stevens, Troxler, and Brown hold individual championship trophies, while Reynolds and Carlton hold District and Conference team trophies.

Leonard, 95. Back Row: Bub Carlton, 138; Rick Reynolds, 154; Butch Brown, 165; Rick Beattie, 180; Mark Hart, unlimited; John Kesler, 197.

Three of these boys went on to do well in the state wrestling tournament held here at Boyden. Rick Reynolds placed 2nd in the state, and Butch Brown and Mark Hart each placed third.

This was certainly a great year for the Boyden wrestling team. The success of the team was largely due to six seniors - Bruce Rufty, Bub Carlton, Dave Troxler, Rick Reynolds, Butch Brown, and Mark Hart - who together won 77 matches while losing only 5. But Coaches Turney and Little expect to have a good team back for next year. Juniors Boyce Stevens, Gerald Loftin, Don Clement, Vann Saleeby, Rick Beattie, Benny Hopper, Denny Bennent, and John Kesler all wrestled on the varsity. Jack Hinson, a sophomore, and Charlie Leonard, a freshman, also lettered this year, and can be expected to do a good job in years to come.

Wrestling has certainly become the most successful sport at B.H.S., and Coaches Turney and Little hope the Boyden wrestling team will remain one of the powers in North Carolina high school wrestling in the future.

GOLF TEAM First Row: David Grim, Mike McAdams, Bill Killion, Rick Reynolds, Norman Goodman. Second Row: Bob Selby, Steve Kirchin, Don Selby, Don Clement, Jake Alexander, Denny Bennent. Third Row: Giles

Coach Graham's golfers had a fine season this year, highlighted by the play of the underclassmen members of the team.

Of the six lettermen returning, only one, Rick Reynolds, was a senior. Bill Killion, Mike McAdams, Norman Goodman, David Grim, and Steve Kirchin, all lettermen and all underclassmen, were dedicated linksters and greatly helped the team.

The team played in seven matches, one being here at the Salisbury Country Club on March 31. Bill Killion, who finished fourth in the conference last year, is considered by Coach Graham to be one of the best high school golfers in the state, and his competition in numerous tournaments prepare him for a fine career as a B.H.S. golfer.

The golf team, with only one senior out of eighteen participants, should provide some excellent competition in the Central 4-A Conference in the future.

Harrison, named the most outstanding trackster last year, is a terrific sprinter. Hillard is an outstanding sprinter and highjumper. Julian won the conference in the mile last year, and he hopes to set a new Central 4-A record in that event.

The tennis team this year was basically young and inexperienced. With only five lettermen returning and with only four seniors on the squad, the Jackets had to mature quickly. ### INTRAMURALS

Damnation and hellfire

Rosemary Penley drives around Susan Frank for a lay-up.

Intramurals give the students of Boyden an opportunity to play and to compete in various sports without having to participate in varsity athletics. The boys take part in football, basketball, ping pong, and softball while the girls enjoy soccer, tennis, volleyball, basketball, and archery. Intramurals are a valuable part of school life because they help the students become well-rounded individuals.

Sarah Smith, chief; Pat Phillips, assistant chief; Wayne Caraturo, Gail Eagle, Marcia Mattox, Susan Parks, Sharon Spires.

Organized for only two years, the Junior Varsity cheerleaders have become an integral part of B.H.S. spirit. By performing duties for the Junior Varsity teams similar to those of the Varsity Cheerleaders, these freshmen and sophomores greatly aroused the spirit which had been absent at many of the J.V. contests in the past.

After practicing for three weeks in the summer, the J.V. Cheerleaders are prepared to lead the cheers at all the J.V. games. In addition, they perform other spirit-raising functions, such as making posters and giving out "Support Your Team" ribbons. They also make cookies for the players to eat after the games.

The J.V. Cheerleaders have certainly added much to the spirit as well as the athletic program of Boyden. Through the experience they gained cheering this year, they will inevitably strengthen the entire cheerleading program.

Quill and Scroll is an international society for high school journalists composed of members of the Echo and Yellow Jacket staffs who show promise and who have 3.0 averages.

At the beginning of the year the club invited both staffs to hear Mr. James Barringer, photographer for the Salisbury Post, talk about the fine points of taking pictures.

On March 10, seventeen new members were inducted into the Quill and Scroll in a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church.

Officers: Nancy Carter, chaplain; Katharine Murphy, president; John Rawling, treasurer; Lynn Ridenhour, vice president; Penny Raynor, secretary.

Language Clubs

One more day in the language lab.

French Club projects:

Christmas party French-style. Sang Christmas carols in French. Speakers: from community; Margaret Brady, summer exchange student; Karin Kuiper, Dutch exchange student. Cultural movies and filmstrips.

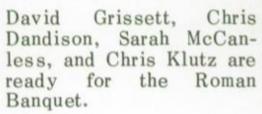

"Today, class, we will study ..."

Latin Club project: Annual Roman Banquet. Freshmen serve as slaves. Upperclassmen serve as hosts by providing entertainment. All wear appropriate costumes.

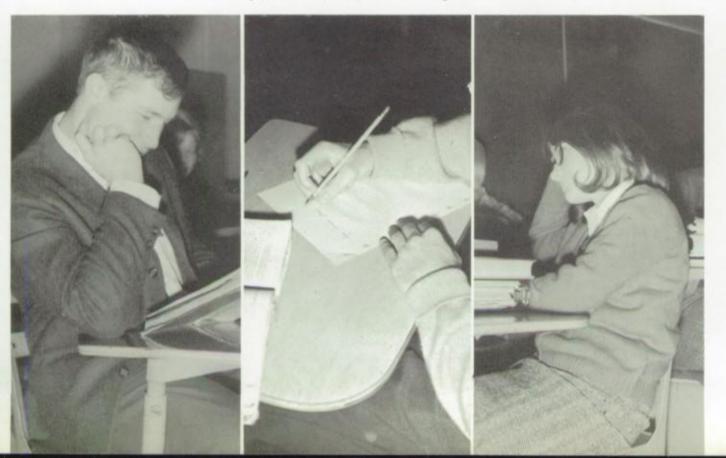

The Latin class listens attentively to Tommy Corriher as he presents a program on Ancient Rome.

Study, write, and think Spanish.

Pep Night! Civitan opens the football season with fun and plenty of school spirit.

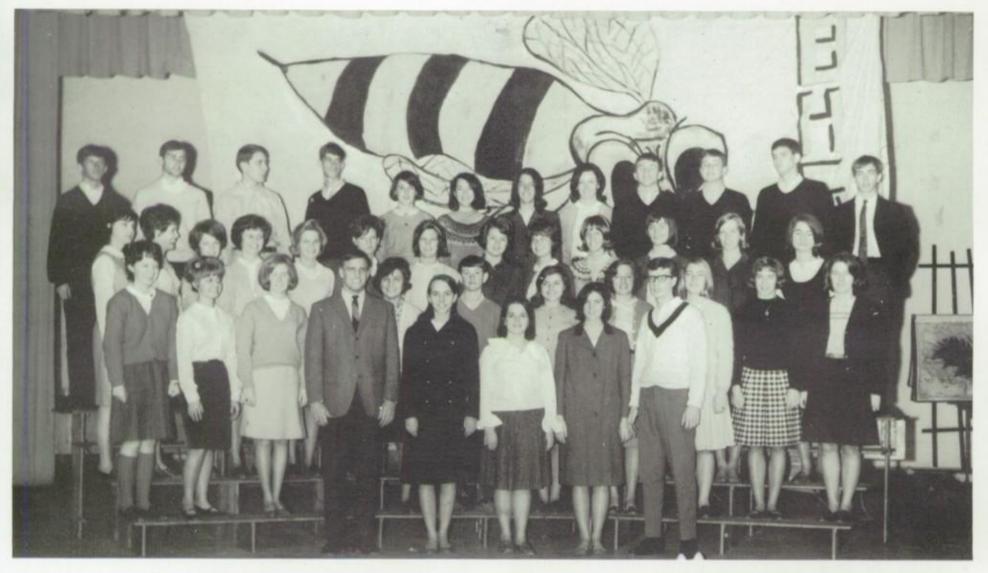

Junior Civitan, one of Boyden's major service clubs, has contributed a lot to the school and community this year. They have sponsored such projects as: car caravans to football games; Pep night; made welcome sign for stadium and goal post banner; printed basketball schedules; members participated in morning devotions; painted Coburn Memorial Methodist Church scout hut; sold popcorn and programs during Christmas parade.

Though competition is high among Boyden's service clubs, the Junior Civitan's goal was not to just win an award, but to be of service to the faculty and students of Boyden and the citizens of Salisbury.

Congratulations Miss Mills-, ugh, Mrs. Snyder!

Their float was good, but not good enough.

Key Clubbers Tim Smith and Giles Goodman help to repair Little League Baseball Park.

Key Club serves school and community

Key Club, sponsored by the Salisbury Kiwanis Club and Key Club International, through its forty-eight members serves both the school as well as the community. The club holds as its motto "We Build"—The building of initiative and leadership to provide experience in living and working together.

Some of the club's major projects include: awarding a $500 scholarship to a qualified Boyden senior, operation of Little League concession stand, the raising of $340 for the Rowan Junior Football League, operation of Boyden football concession stand, providing directional maps for all out of town football games to all students, sponsorship of the annual Holiday Ball. Numerous projects such as these explain why the Key Club was awarded the Service Club Award 1964-1965.

Key Club won the club float division of the Homecoming Parade with the theme "Launch A Victory."

These girls hear the call of the wideopen business fields. The only requirement is a commercial subject, and a world of business ventures open before you.

D.E. . . ambitious

To be eligible for this club you must be an active participant in Distributive Education. Boyden is very proud of this club and it has returned its pride in Boyden by receiving local and district offices. This club helps to encourage students to seek the marketing world for their professions.

F.T.A. . . . an apple a day

Throughout the year the Future Teachers perform certain useful projects, such as helping at the P.T.A. meetings. Springtime finds the Future Teachers scattered at the different Salisbury schools observing their favorite grade. As they prepare to enter the adult world their role as teachers grows increasingly larger.

F.H.A. . . . home beautiful

These girls are bound together by the spirit of homemaking. Realizing the home is the center of life itself, they set forth to improve it by modern methods.

Boosters' Club — spirit of Boyden

Rah! Rah! Rub - a - dub - dubb! Three cheers from the Booster's Club!

Again this year, the Booster's Club has been of great benefit to the B.H.S. hletic Department. An outstanding ontribution in this field was the sale student activity tickets, which brought in over $2000 before the football season even began!

But even greater than this is the personal aspect of the club. Just the thought of hundreds of cheering Boyden ites is enough to raise school spirit. And this, after all, is the major purpose of the Booster's Club-to make the B.H.S. Spirit rise!

Varsity Club

In order to promote good sportsmanship and create an interest in athletics, the Boyden High School Varsity Club functions as a service organization. All boys who letter in and are active in at least one sport each year become members.

Advised by Mr. Ken Bumgarner, the club annually operates the concession stand at all athletic events in the Boyden gymnasium, raising money for the Boyden High Athletic Department. In addition, each year the club gives needed supplies to the Sports Program. It can certainly be said that the Varsity Club benefits not only the school and the Athletic Program, but also the members themselves.

ECHO is different

Mrs. Mary Garrison, advisor; Katharine Murphy and Lynn Ridenhour, co-editors.

Jo Little, assistant; Marcia Harris, art editor.

The 1966 Echo is different. The staff has made use of artwork, photography, poetry, color, and textured paper to record a story—your story, the growth of a Boydenite. The characters are you.

The staff chose to represent maturity by the passing of a runner's torch. This torch may symbolize understanding to some, while it may shine out as truth, knowledge, and direction to others.

No matter what you have found at Boyden, we, the Echo staff of 1965-1966, believe you can find it somewhere represented in this year's Echo.

John Rawling, sports editor; David Troxler, assistant.

Ann Reamer, business manager; Sharon Wagoner, assistant.

Louise Chandler, Mary Bruce McKenzie, Pam Pittard, assistants; Carolyn Edwards, copy editor.

Mrs. Jo Ann Brooks, advisor.

Kay Collier, ad manager; Dottsie Helms, assistant ad manager.

Yellow Jacket made additions

Several new slants on student activities were offered in the Yellow Jacket this year with the addition of "Wayne's Wanderings" and "Witch's Brew". The Y. J. staff made the routine plea for more privileges and fewer pressures. Originality was employed elsewhere from the relating of facts to the creating of fables.

Disregarding finances, the Yellow Jacket staff proved itself successful.

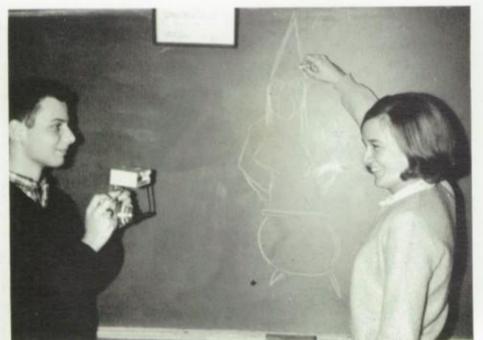

Chuck Hoover, assistant sports editor; David Post, sports editor.

Staff writers: Cheryl Sprinkle, Anna Mills Scarborough, Lynn Kenerly, Sherry McDonald, Juliet Johnston, Brenda Evans, Becca Fain, Wayne Robeson, not pictured.

Gene Caraturo, photographer; Susan Dedmon, art editor.

Dear Students ...

Our Exchange Student From Holland

This is the family I adopted; Mother Nash, Father Nash, and Sister Lona.

American teenagers are not as bad as some people think, to me they are just wonderful! I like that the teenagers come so often together in clubmeetings, hayrides, slumber-parties, or just after school at the drugstore. In this way it is possible to make many friends. Something that was new to me and what I enjoyed very much were the football games and especially the pep rallies were fun!

Typical American things like bermudas, hamburgers and hotdogs seem to have become so much a part of me, and I'm thinking about introducing these in my country!

Yu'all were so kind to me and so willing to help me with everything.

This made this year wonderful and unforgettable to me. Karin Kuiper

Value of College Day . . .

As seniors we are frantic To find where talents lay. Demands of life cause panic: Facts are heard on College Day.

As juniors we are anxious To wear the seniors' shoes. The world is oh so gracious; Problems are nightly news.

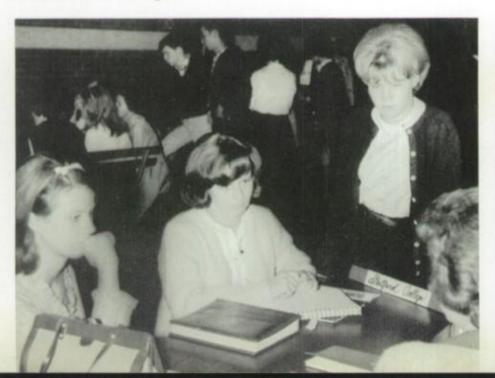

Is baldness peculiar to U.N.C. graduates only?

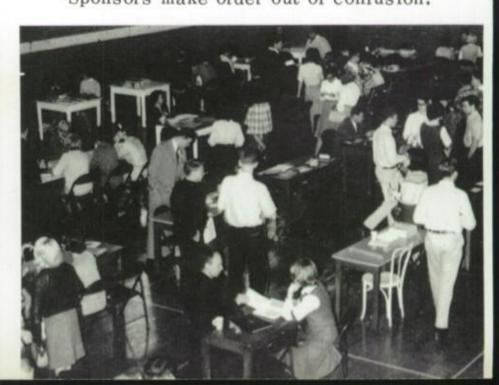

COLLEGE DAY SPONSORS: Moffett Swaim, John Rawling, Lee Goldman, Elizabeth Whittecar, David Troxler, Randy

Money, Susan Hoffman, Marise Ettesen, Steve Morris, Patsy Hall, Jennie Goodman, Libba McCall.

Vaughan, Donna, and Anna Mills inquire about Stratford College.

Sponsors make order out of confusion.

Girls attend Woman's Club

Elizabeth Whittecar, Elaine Elliott, Jeannie Hudson, Ann Edwards, Susan Hoffman, Susan Waller.

Each year the senior homeroom teachers choose girls whom they feel contributed most to school and community activities to serve as Junior Women. Throughout the year, these girls attend the meetings of the Salisbury Woman's Club as honorary members.

Recognition at Girls' and Boys' State

The American Legion Posts and their auxiliary chapters select boys and girls to serve as their representatives at Boys' and Girls' State. Boys' State, held at U.N.C.-Chapel Hill, and Girls' State, held at U.N.C.-Greensboro, teach their delegates the American system of government and its ideals.

This year, Linda Earp received special recognition when she was elected attorney general of the girls' convention.

GARY STEVEN YOST Band 1,2.

Traditionally, the senior class has elected from among its ranks a group called superlatives. They are given credit for being "The Best Looking", "The Wittiest", and the like. Because the ECHO staff feels that a well rounded image of Boyden's graduating class is not depicted by such a group, the staff has made an addition to the yearbook.

First, the seniors themselves elected a boy and girl most exemplary of the qualities of leadership, scholarship, and school pride. The departments were then asked to select on the basis of grades, the students most capable in each phase of the curriculum.

These outstanding seniors are pictured throughout the senior class section. The superlatives are featured in the senior directory in activities that warrant their recognition.

Graduation Day ... The long journey is over. Boy, these four years flew by fast. I'll never forget them, the greatest years of my life.
